

SAID IN CYPRESS

By Newsy

Some weeks back we said in this column that it would still be our policy at election time to print the material as presented by the candidates, so that you, the reading public could make up your own minds how to vote.

Comes now the time to go to the polls and express individually the preferences that could make or break the nation. Voters have received directions on where to vote, a sample ballot and reams and reams of advice. Each vote counts, you know, even though you may feel like a drop in the ocean compared to the thought of the masses who will make use of this time-honored prerogative. Our country is one of the few left in the world where we can enjoy this privilege.

We have the feeling that we wouldn't be fulfilling our duty as an editor if we didn't make some remarks here, and at least stir up enough trouble to lose at least one or two subscribers who will take exception to any opinion we might express regarding a candidate in which they did not concur.

In studying the field, there is just one thought uppermost in our minds as we try to make a choice. We're taking into consideration a man's spouse and our vote will definitely be influenced as to whether the wives have snubbed and ignored us in the past! We read in a trade journal the other day about a speech that was made before a journalism class this spring by a prominent newspaperman on how to become successful in the newspaper field. His advice to the boys was that they should choose a wife as carefully as they would choose a new press! Turn that over in your minds once or twice and we think you will get the implication. Not only does she have to like her husband's chosen profession, but she must also be liked by the public.

We think it is a mistake for any man to suddenly decide to enter politics unless he is pretty sure of his helpmate and how the public will react to her. If she's the type of woman who can't stand other women, and is insincere and intolerant of people, then uh, uh. She'll do him more harm than good. We think a man should train his wife over a period of years, like horses are geared for the big race, unless he's awfully sure of himself!

Mrs. Warren, the governor's wife, is an especially gracious lady, and can make you feel as though she knows you the way she looks at you, even though you have never met. On the other hand, "Pat" Brown, a contender with Governor Warren in California for the post of president of the United States, has one of those wonderful memories that is so enviable. He is introduced to you one year, then meets you a year later at a social affair, calls you by name, and remembers that you and your family are all brothers and sister, which is more than can be said for people in your own neighborhoods! One democratic hopeful to congress was told he should be elected because his wife would be such a definite asset to Washington society! We made the same remark, not knowing we were being redundant.

So, you say, your reasoning on how to vote is just about the silliest we've ever heard about. Oh well, that's a woman's privilege. Men have been known to reject a candidate because they didn't like the way he parted his hair or the color of ties he wore, you know!

COORDINATING COUNCIL MEETS AT BROADBELT'S

Work on securing a wheel chair for a Cypress man, one of the current projects of the Cypress Coordinating council, took a new turn at the meeting held in the home of Jim Broadbelt last week.

Finding a wheel chair larger than the one now being used has held up progress and it was discovered this week that a larger one is not needed. Since the only improvements over the present one are larger casters and a head rest, it was decided it might be cheaper to rent one for the patient.

The Penny Foundation of Los Angeles donated a wheel chair, but it was built in such a manner that a man couldn't get his feet under it when he gets out of the chair.

Present at the meeting was the Rev. Father Wm. J. Berry of Artesia, who represents the Catholic Welfare Bureau for Orange and Los Angeles counties. He explained how the Council could work with the Bureau in aiding the needy.

Presiding at the meeting was H. J. G. (Happy) Kreissler.

Square Dance Proves To Be Lots Of Fun

Those who attended the square dance at the fire station Saturday evening, voted the affair a huge success. Planned as a means to raise money to help the volunteer firemen purchase a rescue truck, the Busy Bee Rebekah lodge members turned over the proceeds from the admission tickets as well as from the sale of sandwiches, pie, and cake and coffee. Mrs. Earl Essex is ways and means chairman.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Elva Dennis, pianist and Hyatt Graham, violinist, who was also proficient on the musical saw. They were from Bellflower.

Interest in the old-fashioned waltz contest was high, with prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Trini Pueras, Carl Sanders and Mrs. Dolly Teuschman and a third couple, Mrs. Millie Graham and Ernest H. Green. Judges were Jay Peterson of Long Beach, Earl Essex and A. E. Arnold.

Firemen Close Time To Buy Prize Tickets

If you haven't yet purchased tickets on the four wonderful items which will be given away by the Cypress Volunteer Firemen at their dance Saturday evening, June 14, there is still an opportunity to buy, according to Ed Robinson.

Prizes to be awarded that evening at 10:30 o'clock are a deep fryer, radio, waffle iron and roaster. Since the funds derived from the sale will go toward the purchase of a rescue truck for the department, every family should have a good supply.

Robinson warns that all tickets must be turned in by Monday evening, June 9. He urges those who are still holding tickets to report back to the fire laddie from whom they checked them out in the first place, since the tickets are numbered and that person is held responsible.

Funeral For Mrs. Price Is Saturday

Friends were shocked this week to hear of the unexpected death of Mrs. Charlotte Price. A familiar sight at school functions, Mrs. Price was housekeeper and companion of Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, school superintendent, at her home at 1608 E. Center st. in Anaheim. She will indeed be missed by her many friends here, old and young alike.

Mrs. Price complained of feeling badly with flu-like symptoms last week, failing to rally over the weekend. Miss Dickerson took her to Fullerton General hospital Monday morning, where she passed away shortly after noon. She was sixty-one years of age.

After the death of Miss Dickerson's mother in December, 1947, Mrs. Price came to live with her in January, 1948, from Oregon. She leaves a sister in that state and a brother from Washington state, who are expected to arrive in time for the funeral.

Backs Campbell and Kaulbars mortuary is in charge of arrangements, with services to be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in the chapel there, 251 N. Lemon st. Interment will be in Anaheim cemetery. Pastor of the Presbyterian church will be in charge.

Boy Scouts Get Charter Monday

Cypress Boy Scout Troop No. 76 was presented its charter for 1952 by Lloyd Paxton of the Orange County Council of Boy Scouts Monday evening at the Kiwanis meeting.

Paxton first presented the charter to Dick Hathcock, president of the Kiwanis club, who are the Scouts' sponsors, who in turn gave it to Scoutmaster Warren TerBeest. It was then put into the hands of the boys, with senior patrol leader Billy Thielman accepting it for the group.

Also present at the meeting representing the Scouts were Paul Hicks, Allen Taylor, Robert Lukens, and Taka Tanaka. They are all patrol leaders.

Paxton showed a movie on the Community Chest and how it helps scouting.

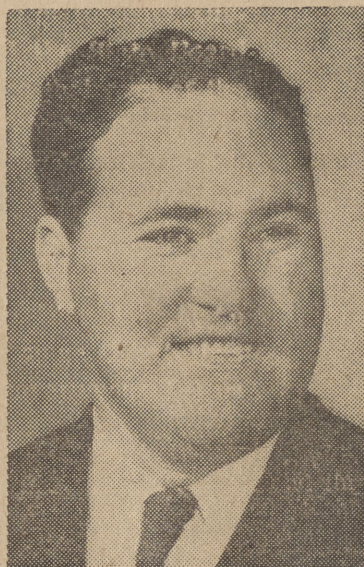

Cards were presented to TerBeest, and Kiwanis scout committeemen, George Ogata, Carl Sanders, Jr., Tom Murphy, Russell Flynn and Rev. Wm. D. Howard.

Guests of the club were Joe Berle and Audry Hill of Buena Park.

Wedding Bells Soon To Ring For Native Son

The engagement and approaching wedding of their daughter, Donna Lee, to James Bock, was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rooney. Formerly of Paramount, the family now lives on Crescent ave. The bride-to-be was a student in Paramount Junior High school and Anaheim High school.

The marriage rites will be performed on Saturday evening, June 7, at eight o'clock, in the Cypress Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. W. D. Howard, pastor, will officiate.

Bock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bock, Sr., 9172 Miller road. A native son in the Cypress area, he spent almost four years in the army during World War II, being overseas for 36 months. He is employed as a barber in Corby's shop.

Those elected to represent the Cypress Church of the Nazarene were Mrs. William Howard and Mrs. Herbert Orban. Dr. G. B. Williamson presided at the assembly.

SPECTACULAR FIRE CAUSES EARLY ALARM

An early morning fire practically destroyed a two-family dwelling here Saturday morning. Occupants of the building were aroused and all reached safety. It was believed a truck standing beneath a canopy set fire to the latter, which spread to the building, 5591 Lincoln avenue. The gas tank ignited, causing the fire to spread rapidly, according to local volunteer firemen, who answered the call with dispatch, as did the West Anaheim fire department. A passing truck driver is credited with informing the family, which sent a youthful lad to the station to turn in the alarm.

Albert Villa and his four small youngsters, ages one, two, three and four, escaped without injury. Mrs. Villa was taken to the hospital the day before, because she was expecting the birth of a fifth child. Her parents, the Ubaldo Abeytas and family, were the other occupants. A son of theirs had just arrived home that evening after serving overseas in Korea.

The families made other sleeping arrangements, and were thankful that the fire spared a fine new stove and refrigerator. Mrs. Mae Yudis, now of Santa Ana where she is in a rest home, is the owner of the property.

SCHOOL PICNIC AND CARNIVAL SET FOR JUNE 6

School children and their parents are looking forward to June 6. That is the big day of the year, which means, too, that school is practically out for summer vacation. It is the day of the school carnival. No lunch is served in the cafeteria, but hot dogs and hamburgers are on sale at the school, or families may bring their own picnic lunches.

A good time is planned for everyone from 12:30 until 5 p.m. Since the growth of the elementary registration to its present proportions, this proved the most satisfactory way to handle the picnic and carnival when it was tried last year.

So save the day! And come to school on June 6 prepared for a gala time.

G. S. Leaders Hostess Here To Council

When the "Leaders' Club" of the Anaheim Girl Scout council met in the Cypress school auditorium Tuesday evening, forty members were present.

The group saw a movie illustrating a successful troop "overnight." Annual sale of cookies and calendars was recommended as money raising activities for another year.

After a session of camp songs, a buffet supper was served by Cypress leaders. They were Mmes. D. DeWitt, J. Fleetwood, E. Clark, C. Daniel, L. Sewell, D. Rodgers, K. Giles, A. Patterson and Mrs. Shank.

Faulkner Asks Voters Support For Third District Reactivation

In this, the last of a series of published statements regarding my candidacy for Supervisor, I feel that I should summarize my background and record, which I feel qualifies me to give the Third district improved representation on the Board of Supervisors.

Perhaps I am not an Old Timer, as my opponent points out. But when I get along in my seventies, then I, too, can say that I am an Old Timer, when compared to a young man of 38.

But I have lived long enough in Orange county to know its problems. You wouldn't have to live here very long to see that the Third district has some very serious ones, and that nothing is being done about them. I have reviewed them in previous statements.

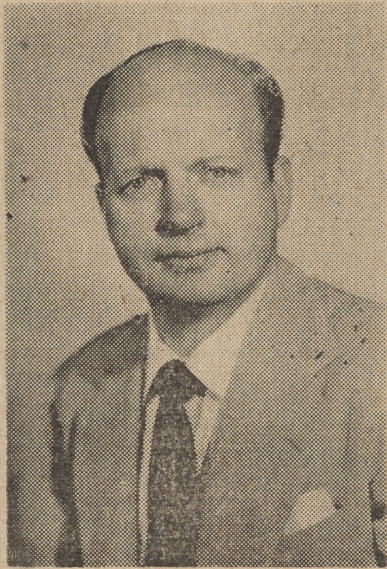

I am anxious to do something about them, because I have a $100,000 investment in property, and because, as any civic-minded person would, I think others should have their property interests protected, too. Is there anyone in the Third district who could truthfully say that their interests are being protected? Not after last winter's rains, as one example.

Referring to myself as civic-minded, I should explain that I have served two years as president of a chamber of commerce, and as a member of the Board of Directors, Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County. This year I headed the March of Dimes in Buena Park area, and served as general chairman of Home Town Day there. I belong to the American Legion, having served in the Air Force during World War II.

Although my private business income is many times the salary of Supervisor, I am ready to serve in that office, because I honestly believe—I know—that something ought to be done to correct the situation which affects all of us in the Third District.

I am not representing this as any personal sacrifice. I expect to benefit from improved service like the rest of you. I do not wish to intimate that I would be giving up my private income—no Supervisor does that, since it is nominally a part-time office. I would have plenty of time for the Supervisor's duties, because my own business operations are so well organized that I need only give them directive attention.

I produce a patented automotive chemical product distributed nationally. One of two corporations

Edward Faulkner

I founded was an Aviation Business which was doing a gross business of more than $250,000 a year when I disposed of it in 1949. I also am business manager of two hospitals.

My home is on 10 acres in the West Anaheim district, where I raise purebred herefords for breeding purposes.

These facts are presented only to show that I know modern business methods and have grounds for saying that I have the business ability needed—and needed badly—to get things done in the Third District.

I realize that there are some who do not want change. A list of so-called endorsers of the present Supervisor, as published, betrayed two facts. One is that he is endorsed by the political machine that he not long ago endorsed for city offices, and which group has since acquired bad odor in that city by its activities. It is not an endorsement that I would care to have, myself.

The other fact betrayed is that the names published include a number that actually are sponsoring my candidacy and who said their names were used without permission. What goes on here?

In conclusion, let me say that I have tried to see everyone I could personally contact throughout the district, and regret I could not see all. People always get the kind of government they deserve and deserve the kind of government they get, because they are the ones who elect the officials. My pledge to everyone, if elected Supervisor on June 3rd, is an honest and vigorous administration

21 Inning Game Adds Thrills To Hometown Day Entertainment

The Saturday night, Hometown Day, game between the Fresno Rockets and the Buena Park Lynx provided more entertainment than the fans bargained for. It lasted 21 innings and the final run earned by the Rockets didn't come in until after midnight. More than 500 fans were still in their seats when the game ended.

The Kittens took Maywood's measure in the opening game of the double-header with a score of 1 to 0.

Fresno picked up both of their Pacific League games here over the week-end, winning from Orange 1 to 0 Sunday night. The exhibition game against the Lynx Friday night was another story with the locals racking up a 1 to 0 victory which doesn't do them much good in league standings.

Saturday's game lasted 3 hours and 10 minutes, but still fell two innings short of the league and national record of 23 innings, set last year when Fresno whipped Orange, 1-0. Fresno was also involved in a 22-inning scrape last year and came out on top again, whipping Phoenix, 4-0.

Alice Beresford made her league debut for the Rockets by going the entire distance. She gave up 11 hits, walked five and fanned four.

Miessen Injured

Bev Miessen twirled the first 19 frames for the Lynx, but had to retire in the 20th because of a torn finger nail, incurred when she slid into third base in the last of the 19th. Tommie Slappey was charged with the loss. She worked her way out of a tight spot in the 20th fanning Beresford and forcing Clausen to ground out with the bases loaded, but came to her end in the 21st.

Kay Rich, the hitting star of the game, clouted her fourth hit—a triple—with one out. After gaining new life when the catcher dropped her pop foul, Betty Schlegel rapped a single to left field to drive in Rich with the decider. It was an earned run since Irene Huber followed up with an infield single.

Unearned Marker

Fresno's only run off Meissen was unearned. With one out in the top of the sixth. Rose Pitman singled to left. Kay Rich followed with an infield blow, advancing Pitman to second. The Rockets loaded the bases when Carolyn Broady dropped a throw at second on Schlegel's grounder. Irene Huber forced Pitman at the plate, but Rich scored when Ruby Moore bobbled Pat Richmond's grounder.

The fans were swarming to the exits with two out and none on in the last of the seventh when the Lynx rallied to tie the score. Bev Miessen rapped the onion to right field and it bounced past Huber for a triple. Slappey singled through the box to score Miessen.

ATTENTION VOTERS

Your Court structure is to be changed January 5, 1953.

The voters of California adopted a constitutional amendment providing for the creation of Municipal Court Judicial districts.

The Board of Supervisors of Orange County have designated the district located north of the Santa Ana River and including the communities of Fullerton, Anaheim, Placentia, Yorba Linda, Brea, La Habra, Buena Park, Cypress, Stanton, Garden Grove, Olinda and Atwood as a Municipal Court district to be served by one Municipal Court judge.

This court will take the place of three justice courts and five city courts now in existence.

The building for the new court is to be erected in the City of Anaheim.

Why not, then, in all fairness, have the judge from this area outside of Anaheim?

Judge Lloyd S. Verry is thoroughly qualified by training and experience for this position. He is a lawyer of 21 years standing and is now Justice of the Peace of Fullerton Township.

I commend him to your thoughtful consideration.

Couple Wed In Lovely Church Rites

In a lovely ceremony at St. Boniface church in Anaheim Saturday morning, the marriage of Miss Angele Merlier to Frank Sallaberry was performed. After a honeymoon trip in northern California, the couple will make their home on Cypress avenue in Cypress.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clara Nachtergaele of 8812 Cypress ave. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Leona Merlier, who came here with their mother from Belgium. The new Mrs. Sallaberry has lived in this country for three years. Her husband is a native of the Pyrenees, mountains which separate Spain from France, where his family still resides.

Ring bearer was little Yves Janssens of Cypress, a nephew. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Capilla de San Antonio.

Boy On Bicycle One Of Many Injured In Traffic

Monta W. O'Neal, 61, 8742 Miller st., Cypress, received major injuries Thursday evening at Grand and Orangethorpe avenues, Buena Park, where his car collided with a car driven by Nick Di-Stapalatro, 30 of Norwalk. O'Neal was taken to Santa Ana Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hazlett and two older children, both girls, enjoyed a camping trip on the Sespe river near Ojai. Mrs. Virginia Quast, Mrs. Hazlett's mother, cared for little Jimmy Hazlett during the family's absence.

Several from Cypress were seen participating in the Hometown Day parade in Buena Park Saturday. Among them were Miss Deloris Cardin, W. J. McCoid, Andy Johnson, Dean Watson, Gary Hagen. The latter four rode horses. Dolly Hathcock marched in the parade.

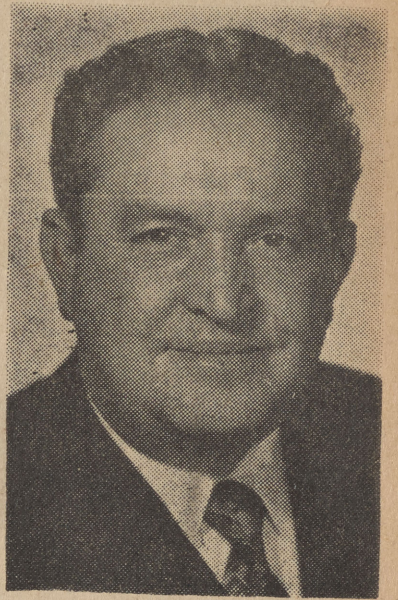

Keep Your Senator FREE

It is generally admitted that this campaign for State Senator is a fight against group control of the office.

Sam L. Collins is fighting against pressure groups now, as he always has resisted group pressure in the Legislature, believing it to be a government evil.

He considers individual rights as important as the rights of any organized group. As Speaker of the Legislature, he always represented ALL the people.

No group can claim him. No group can control him. No group can seize control as they are trying to do, if Sam L. Collins is elected State Senator.

Morning Affair For Mrs. Howard

Mrs. W. D. Howard was honored at a "going away" party Tuesday morning. Planned originally by Mrs. Walter Allen for members of the Garnet Howard chapter of the missionary society to be held in her home, plans had to be changed at the last moment. Little Mary Jo, Mrs. Allen's daughter, swelled up with the mumps. So Mrs. Jeff Davis, co-hostess graciously invited the group to her home.

Breakfast was served from 9:30 until 12 o'clock. Mrs. Howard was presented with a monetary gift from members of the group. Mr. and Mrs. Howard leave June 8 for Kansas City, Missouri, to attend the general assembly meeting of the Nazarene church.

Present at the pleasant affair were Mmes. Dave Bock, P. K. Allen, Robert Stearns, Leon Ferguson, J. A. McCoy, Charles Thomas and Mrs. Oscar Kelley of Buena Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail McCoy, former residents now of San Diego, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robinson, 6332 Lincoln avenue.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn A. Hubbard, 8121 Miller road, are announcing to friends here the birth of their first grandchild born to Hubbard's son, Edgar A. Hubbard and his wife in Roslyn Heights, New York. The baby weighed seven pounds and has been named Richard John.

Young Hubbard was recently discharged from service in the air corps and is employed in a defense plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Derril Cardin arrived home Friday morning after visiting in Cushing, Okla., with relatives. Their return was a little ahead of schedule since the couple with whom they made the trip came back earlier than they expected.

Mrs. Howard Smith, Laguna Beach, visited Tuesday and Wednesday with her friend of long-standing, Mrs. Mabelle Dyer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson moved from Cypress Cottages to the home they formerly occupied on Miller road.

ENJOY MOTOR TRIP TO DENVER

Mr. and Mrs. Don Caul made a trip to Denver, Colorado, where they attended the wedding of her nephew, James A. Loar. Other guests at the wedding included Mrs. Caul's father, James E. Case, Sr., and her sister, Mrs. Vera Loar, mother of the groom.

The Cauls traveled through snow and encountered rain and flooded conditions. Their greatest regret is that it was raining in Colorado Springs so that they could not see Pike's Peak, after making a swing in that direction for that reason.

CATCHES BIG FISH

You can never believe the fisherman, but "Bud" Southfield asserts that it's true—John Crume caught a whopper down Newport way on Sunday. Said it was a halibut, and was the biggest catch of all.

What makes this a better "fish story" than usual is that John is one of our town's handicapped persons, so he deserves more credit than most. He is an avid fisherman and takes off every chance he gets.

SEE DESERT WONDERS

Mrs. H. J. G. Kreissler visited her desert "claim" this weekend near Joshua Tree. She was accompanied by her cousin, Douglas MacLean, Miss Betty Saunders, and Sid Fosen.

Fosen is an artist who concentrates on art work concerning the Alaskan Eskimo. Knowledge of his subject is gained entirely through research at the libraries in and around Los Angeles.

The group visited Giant Rock airport which proved to be extremely interesting. The area abounds in items of historical interest.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the organizations and individuals who sent flowers and cards during our recent bereavement.

The Speaker

That title, which has belonged to Sam L. Collins during the past twelve sessions of the Legislature is more than just a title. It is proof of his leadership in state government.

That proof is supported by other proofs. He is a member of the Board of Regents, University of California, and the State Board of Public Works. He is vice-chairman of the Legislature's new Joint Interim Committee to study future highway development. He is a member of the Joint Interim Committee on Agriculture.

Speaker Collins' strong position in state government means that Orange County has a strong position in state government. Let us stay strong.

Examining And Analyzing The Qualifications Of The Congressional Candidates

For the purpose of presenting a careful picture of the abilities and qualifications of the various 28th (new) District Congressional Candidates to be nominated June 3, a Voters Committee, comprised of Electors from both Orange and San Diego Counties, was formed, and the following factual data is presented:

FARRELL, David — Young man in his early thirties. Resident of Santa Ana. In several small business ventures. Registered as Republican in February, 1952, and previously had declined to state his party affiliation. His literature says he is a salesman and gives the usual panacea to reform federal government, abolish income tax, but lacks definite methods to bring them about. Insufficient business and political experience.

KNAPPE, Oscar — Resident of Escondido for 11 years. Rancher, small businessman (oil dealer). Republican. Against Communism and socialism as are all Republican aspirants. Also against usual graft, tyranny and incompetence of Truman Administration. Literature fails to explain how to bring reforms.

LINNELL, Frank M. — Resident of Newport Beach since 1941. Twice elected prosecuting attorney in Iowa. At present city judge of Newport Beach, where he has law offices. Successful law practice So. Calif. since 1923. Lifelong Republican. San Diego Union (leading newspaper) says: "Linnell appears to have a better command of language in public appearances than other candidates in the race." Then quotes Linnell: "I know how to get things done as a prosecutor to stop corruption. It is time to restore to Congress the power of the purse."

STEIGER, John A. — Only bachelor in race. Resident of Oceanside. Personable young man and stated recently making the race for experience and acquaintance, which would be valuable in future campaigns rather than in hope of winning this one. Realtor and insurance man. Failed to answer questions on the issues put to him recently by Santa Ana Independent.

UTT, James B. — Born in Tustin. Comes from wealthy, pioneer family of ranchers. Admitted to bar 1946. Member of California Legislature two terms, 1932-34. Defeated by State Senator Clyde Watson of Orange for third term. Defeated for Santa Ana City Council in 1947. Last 16 years Inheritance Tax Appraiser for the State. Says federal subsidies "immoral," but says has accepted farm subsidies, "because I would be subjected to criticism of my boards of directors if I didn't." Laguna Beach Post rated Utt's qualifications to place him fifth in present race, adding: "We found his presentation very inept." Failed to answer Independents' questionnaire. Previous rejection at Polls considered significant.

VAN DEERLIN, Lionel — Grew up at Oceanside. Only Democrat so registered. Twelve years in newspaper work on San Diego Journal, formerly owned by Congressman McKinnon. Took Journalism course at U.S.C. His slogan: "A new man, a new District." Little business experience other than newspaper reporter

CORBY'S HOME

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Corby returned on Wednesday last week after attending funeral services in Stafford, Kansas, for their son, Harold Corby. Also driving home earlier were their daughters, Mrs. John Boyd of Cypress and Mrs. Paul Brenneman of Bakersfield. Brenneman was the other driver.

Mrs. Harold Corby plans to remain in Kansas with her two sons, a nine year old and a baby one year old.

COLVINS GREAT GRANDPARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colvin became great grandparents when a daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Crane in Hawthorne. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Colvin of Torrance.

Mrs. Cora Mae Foster of Cedar City, Utah, arrived in Cypress Wednesday. A school teacher, she plans to spend the summer here visiting her two sisters, Mrs. Ethel Rutledge and Mrs. Sarah Chapman and other relatives.

Those from Cypress attending the county-wide IOOF picnic at Westminster park last Sunday were the G. W. "Nebb" Milbourns and family, the Karl Beasons' and Jimmy Beason's friend, Neil Baker and Burt Kroesen.

RECAPITULATION: — Committee believes congress seat requires qualification and experience best seen in Linnell, especially in starting a new district properly.

Catholic Festival And Parade Well Attended

An impressive procession from the Catholic Church of St Pius V to the post office and back to the church, where May Fugundes, Queen of the May, crowned the statue of "Our Lady of Fatima", marked the annual May Festival on May 25.

Thomas Kasprzyk was grand marshal, followed by William Sousa and Frank Ferriera, in U.S. Army uniforms carrying American and papal flags. St. Catherines Military band was next in line, then the float of Our Lady of Fatima, Queen of Peace. Marching units of the Knights of Columbus, Holy Name society were followed by other men, Women of the Altar Society, other women, girls and boys, a float of Queen of Our Country, Patroness of the U. S., little girls in long dresses carrying French bouquets and baskets of flowers, girls of Marywood High School in formals, carrying batons covered with flowers and the last float, "Queen of the Festival," with her attendants.

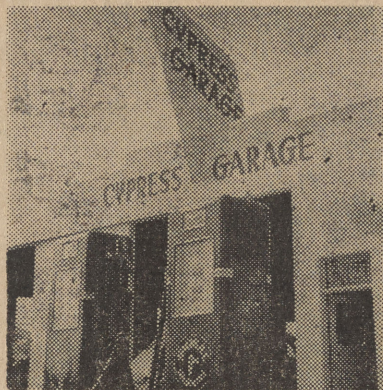

After returning to the church, the queen crowned the statue of "Our Lady of Fatima."

Games and other entertainment filled the rest of the day, with the continuous serving of a roast beef dinner. The entire Festival was a great success.

Mrs. Lulu Spiker, 5671 Saint Ann, returned from a trip to Oklahoma with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Max Spiker and little son. They were unfortunate to strike some highway under construction, and the jolts somewhat incapacitated Mrs. Spiker temporarily, affecting her back and shoulders.

County Zoning Change On Cattle May Be Approved

Revisions of the county zoning ordinance liberalizing restrictions on cattle feeding have been tentatively approved by the county planning commission at the request of Edward Faulkner, West Anaheim, who has been working on the matter for some time.

The planning commission has requested approval of the Orange County Farm Bureau before presenting amendments of the zoning ordinance to the county supervisors.

Faulkner began working for the changes after the Board of Supervisors turned down his application for a permit for supplemental feeding on his ranch in the West Anaheim district.

He proposed a revision that would provide for pasturage as the main source of feeding cattle and horses, supplemental feeding of grain or other products would be permitted to keep the stock in good condition. Such places of feeding and watering must be at least 150 feet from any dwelling on adjoining property.

Faulkner told the planning commission that cattlemen in the western part of the county, and the dairy department of the Farm Bureau, have approved his proposal.

The revision would limit pastured stock to a total gross weight of 4000 pounds per acre of pasture. Faulkner had suggested a limit of three head of stock per acre, but other stock raisers had favored the poundage limit, which would allow more young stock than if mature animals were pastured.

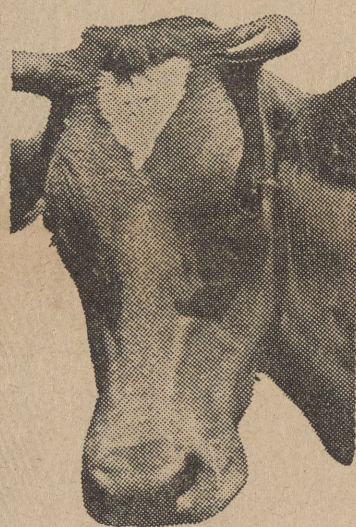

Mrs. Earl Essex returned from a week spent in Modesto with her cousin, Mrs. Pearl Rath, at a ranch which belonged to Mrs. Rath's mother and which the two women put into shape to be sold. Earl Essex went up earlier with a truck and brought back some of the household effects.

WHY did Candidates for Congress James B. Utt of Santa Ana and John Steiger of Oceanside refuse or neglect to answer the questions on national issues asked them by a Santa Ana newspaper?

DO THEY NOT THINK THE VOTERS ARE ENTITLED TO KNOW THEIR VIEWS?

WOULD THEIR ANSWERS HAVE BEEN EMBARRASSING?

DO THEY BELIEVE LARGE EXPENDITURES AND SECRECY CAN WIN THE CAMPAIGN?

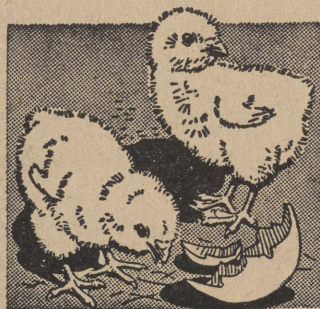

WE INVITE the voters to examine the answer of FRANK M. LINNELL of Newport Beach on every issue, and vote for one who chooses to inform them of his stands.
